Welcome

www.nypl.org

The New York Public Library offers a wide variety of programming for children and teens throughout the Bronx, Manhattan, and Staten Island. Explore the listings in this program guide to discover the range of activities presented in an environment that will inspire a spirit of creativity, exploration, and intellectual growth. For more information, contact the Office of Children's Services at 212-340-0906 or the Office of Young Adult Services at 212-340-0909.

For complete, up-to-date listings of programs and classes at all of our locations, visit the Library's online Calendar at www.nypl.org/calendar, where you can search for programs by date/time, location, borough, type of program, and audience (school age, preschoolers, toddlers & babies, etc.).

All New York Public Library locations will be closed for holiday observance on the following days:
 Labor Day: Saturday, September 5 through Monday, September 7
 Columbus Day: Monday, October 12
 Veterans Day: Wednesday, November 11
 Thanksgiving Day: Thursday, November 26

Library hours may vary and are subject to change; call to confirm. Programs and activities are subject to change or cancellation; visit www.nypl.org/calendar for up-to-date information.

Become a Friend of the Library

The Library depends on a financial partnership between government agencies and private donors to meet the costs of providing open access to this great center of learning—free of charge to all. By becoming a Friend of the Library, you can play an important role in its mission. In return, you will receive exclusive benefits and discounts extended only to members. To join, visit www.nypl.org/support or call 212-930-0653.

Library Cubs Program

The New York Public Library Cubs Program is an important initiative that raises funds to further the Library's mission of providing free and open access to knowledge, while promoting the importance of reading and libraries to families. Each year, more than five million children visit the Library to pursue their dreams, feed their curiosity, and let their imaginations soar. Funds from the Library Cubs Program will help ensure the availability of resources for children at The New York Public Library. To join, visit www.nypl.org/cubs or call 212-930-0670.

NYPL News

The New York Public Library News is a free monthly e-newsletter that will keep you informed about everything exciting that is happening at the Library. Sign up from home at www.eneews.nypl.org.

Support the Library

Every afternoon, 30,000 youngsters and teens visit the Library to borrow a book or take advantage of the enriching programs listed in this brochure. You can help provide much-needed funds to buy books, underwrite programs, and expand opportunities for children to explore, learn, and grow by making a donation to the Library today!

Become a Friend of the Library for as little as $25. Your contribution will be put to work immediately to benefit the children of New York. As a Friend, you will enjoy special benefits, including discounts on LIVE from the NYPL tickets and at our Library Shop. To join, visit www.nypl.org/support or call 212-930-0653.

An annual gift of $1,000 or more will make you and your family members of our Library Cubs Program. In return for your generous support, you will be invited to exclusive library-themed events held throughout the year, and receive an array of special benefits designed for the whole family to enjoy. For additional information, visit www.nypl.org/cubs or call 212-930-0670.
