

Rodmartin Dec. 24th 1810.

Dear S<sup>r</sup> Joseph

If the inclosed miscellanies of odd names from my collection should contribute towards the making a merry Christmas for yourself and the Ladies I shall think my time in transcribing them well bestowed. Lady Banks will select such as will best answer her purpose for her own collection. I have given my authorities for them all. The tradesmen's names at the end are from my own observation. My brother joins in best compts with

Sir Joseph Banks

Dear S<sup>r</sup> Joseph,
Yours very faithfully an<sup>d</sup> Lysons
