

Learn more about how you can help your child develop important early literacy skills with these resources offered throughout New York.

OTHER LIBRARIES

Brooklyn Public Library

Offers a rich array of early literacy programs at its 59 locations throughout the borough:
bklynlibrary.org

Queens Library

Offers several programs for children 0–5 and their families and caregivers.
queenslibrary.org

EARLY LITERACY ORGANIZATIONS

City's First Readers

An initiative by the New York City Council providing resources that support early reading development for children:
citysfirstreaders.com

Hispanic Information and Telecommunications Network, The Early Learning Collaborative

Creates family engagement materials that promote discussion, early literacy, success in school, and beyond:
earlylearningcollaborative.org

Jumpstart

Leverages the power of community and adult-child relationships to build key language and literacy skills:
jstart.org

Literacy Inc.

Builds neighborhood networks that support young readers by working with school, library, and community partners:
5030 Broadway, Suite 641, New York, NY 10034
lincnyc.org

Literacy Partners

Strengthens families by empowering parents through education:
literacypartners.org

Parent-Child Home Program

Provides the necessary skills and tools to build school readiness:
parent-child.org

Reach Out and Read of Greater New York

Partners with doctors to prescribe books and encourage families to read together:
reachoutandreadnyc.org

CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS

Cool Culture

Helps families access 90 of NYC's cultural institutions for free, including the Brooklyn Children's Museum, the Children's Museum of Manhattan, and the Staten Island Children's Museum:
coolculture.org

MORE

Little eLit

For educational apps, articles, and media:
littleelit.com

NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene

Information and resources for you and your child's health:
nyc.gov/health

WNET, THIRTEEN, PBS

Educational media for you and your child:
thirteen.org

