

Learn at Home Activities for Grades 3–5

Try these activities at home to learn with NYPL!

| Sunday | Monday | Tuesday | Wednesday | Thursday | Friday | Saturday |
|---|---|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | 1 BrainPOP What topic are you interested in learning more about? Explore the educational videos available through BrainPOP and discover something new! | 2 Bookflix Go back in time and check out books from when you were younger! Take a look at videos of classic readalouds on Scholastic's BookFlix ! | 3 Crafts Time to get crafty with Overdrive! Check out the Stay Busy At Home book list and try a new craft today. | 4 Poetry Month Kick off National Poetry Month by reading some poems together. Check out Columbia Granger's World of Poetry or Poets.org ! |
| 5 Baseball Math Play online baseball at funbrain.com to improve your math skills with practice questions! | 6 ScienceFlix Have fun with science. Check out ScienceFlix —try a simple experiment, such as water music! | 7 Census Learn about the 2020 Census at WeCount with family fun activities. | 8 Tumblebooks Try out Tumblebooks and read a story you've never read before! | 9 Digital Art Create a self-portrait using the ABCYa game Color, Draw, & Paint , which invites students to be creative in the digital world! | 10 Family Sometimes it can be hard to be in the same house as your family for so long! Take a moment and remember why you love each other and share out! | 11 Write a Letter Write a letter to your friends from school who you haven't been able to see. What do you want to tell them? What do you like about doing schoolwork from home? |
| 12 eBooks Take a look at EBSCO eBook Public Library Collection ! You may need some help from an adult, but there are books on Fortnite, sports, and more! | 13 TrueFlix TrueFlix added a new Information Literacy section to their site. Learn more about how to read maps correctly! Then, take a look at the NYPL digital maps collection ! | 14 Flipster Missing live sports? Read Sports Illustrated for Kids online using Flipster . | 15 Biography in Context Learn more about a famous figure that you admire using Biography in Context . How did they become so successful? | 16 PressReader In preparation for Earth Day, read the magazine Kids Go Gardening on PressReader ! The magazine also features puzzles and activities to do for fun! | 17 Scholastic GO! Check out Scholastic GO! and find an article about something you've always wanted to learn more about. | 18 Make a Comic Strip Make a comic strip about something that's happened to you in real life. It can be funny or serious—whatever you do is up to you! |
| 19 Relax! What are some hobbies that you enjoy? Arts and crafts? Video games? Take a break from school work some time today and do something that relaxes you! | 20 FreedomFlix Learn more about today's world on Freedom Flix . There are books on different topics and each book pairs with a video and other sources to learn more! | 21 Create a Flower Design a new kind of flower. What would it look like? What would it be called? Draw a picture of this new species and write a paragraph about it! | 22 Earth Day It's Earth Day! Take a walk outside, enjoy the fresh air, and appreciate the beautiful world we live in. | 23 Earth Day, Part 2 Think back to yesterday and draw something you noticed while walking outside. Why was this so memorable? Write a paragraph about what you drew and why. | 24 TumbleMath Practice your math facts with TumbleMath ! | 25 Dance Break Take a dance break! Play a favorite song or turn on the radio and dance it out! |
| 26 Charades Have each person take turns acting out a character from books, movies, or TV for the others to guess! | 27 Movies Stream a movie on Overdrive ! | 28 Birthday Party This year is the New York Public Library's birthday! Make a birthday card to celebrate that the Library is turning 125! | 29 Reader's Theatre Dress up and put on a short play with your family based on a book that you read and enjoyed. | 30 Poem in Your Pocket Day Celebrate Poem in Your Pocket Day by writing a poem of your own and giving it to someone in your family. | | |