ACT BOLDLY AND THINK LIKE A SCREENWRITER!

Movies tell stories in pictures—they show rather than tell. In order to make a movie, directors, storyboard artists, and screenwriters work together to create what we see at the movie theater. We want you to start thinking like screenwriter!

Use the blank storyboards on the next page to create your own visual story, where you are the main character ready to ACT BOLDLY and make the world a better place. In each box you’ll sketch out a visual moment, emotion, or action. Then, add more details in the boxes to the right, like dialogue and scene descriptions. But don’t forget: every scene needs a beginning, middle, and end!

Here’s an example of a completed storyboard!

QUICK TIPS

Storyboards can be quick doodles. Don’t worry about perfect drawings.

You can even take it one step further and write a full story to accompany your storyboards.

ACT BOLDLY BY WRITING A LETTER FOR CHANGE

Has someone ever said to you:

"Hate to tell you, kid, but the world's not fair!"

This is true—the world isn’t fair.

The good news is: you and every other empathetic, smart, creative person has the power to try to change the world to make it a good place to live for everyone.

ONE OF THE WAYS PEOPLE CHANGE THE WORLD IS BY WRITING.

STEP ONE:
Think about a change that would make your city, school, home, or world more just, safe, or pleasant.

STEP TWO:
Think about who has the power to change the thing you want changed.

STEP THREE:
Write a letter, making it clear why change is needed. Why is the current way of doing things wrong?

STEP FOUR:
Don’t be quiet! Send your letter!

If you see something wrong, chances are that other people do too. Find people who care the same way you do.

MY PARENTS SHOULD LET ME STAY HOME FROM SOCCER WHEN I'M HAVING A BAD DAY.

ALL THE SUBWAY STATIONS SHOULD HAVE ELEVATORS!

People have wheelchairs and strollers and grocery carts and babies and we deserve to use the train.

You can do research by reading books or articles online! This will make your argument stronger. Ask a librarian to help you find information.

Problems aren’t solved overnight, but that makes it even more important to keep our voices loud.
