Imagine Together

with The New York Public Library

This summer, join us as we Imagine Together by exploring all the things that make up our world: our family and friends, our neighbors, the communities we're a part of, our city, and beyond. Together, we'll read, learn, and have fun!

Find out about everything the Library has to offer this summer, including take-home activity kits at your local branch and our Virtual Summer Camp. Learn more: NYPL.org/summer

My name is:

There's no better way than reading to have fun while keeping your skills sharp. We recommend you read for at least 20 minutes a day.

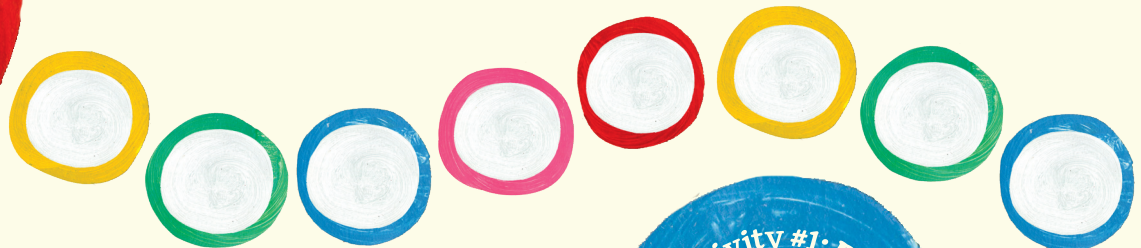

My daily reading goal is:

Start Here

Ready, Set, Go!

Put a check in each circle as you meet your daily reading goal—or write in your reading minutes! Attach a badge to start, as you complete activities, and when you become a Reading Star!

Read and rate your books

Get new books from the Library and give them a star rating in your reading log.

Activity #1: Read

Have fun and use your imagination

Attend an online storytime or other fun Library event. There are programs for all ages!

Get creative and share your ideas

Review a book you've read or enter our writing contest. More details on the next page.

BONUS: Get Creative!

Activity #2: Learn

Learn and try new skills

Get a take-home activity kit from an open branch or complete a Virtual Summer Camp activity!

Great Job!

You're a Reading Star!

What was your favorite?

Write a short review or draw a picture about one of the books you liked most.

Enter the Summer Writing Contest!

This summer, we'd love to hear about what invention you would create to help your community or city. What would it do? Whom would it help? How would you build it? Tell us about your idea—every exciting detail! Send us your entry by Friday, August 6, by sending an email to youthservices@nypl.org or mailing it to: The New York Public Library, ATTN: Writing Contest/CHPRG, 445 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10016.
