

The New York Public Library
Best Books
of 2020

Top 10 Poetry Books

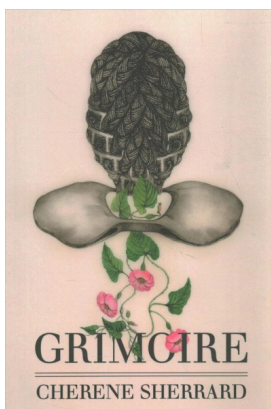

The New York Public Library's poetry committee has selected its top 10 collections of 2020, marking an extraordinary year for the form. These titles explore immigrant identity, motherhood, the balm of art in challenging times, and much more. You can find these and other great books for adults, kids, and teens at nypl.org/bestbooks

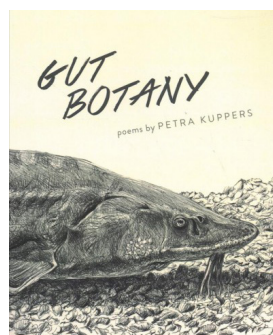

Finna: Poems
by Nate Marshall

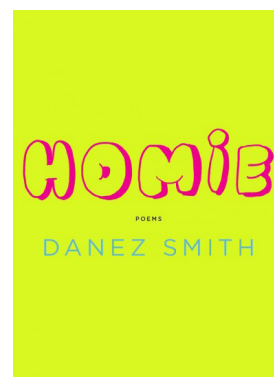

The Galleons: Poems
by Rick Barot

Grimoire
by Cherene Sherrard

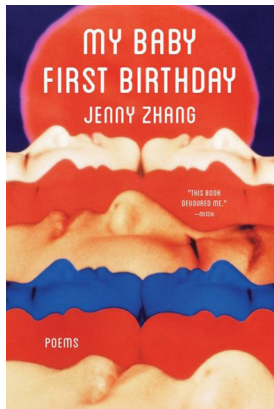

Gut Botany
by Petra Kuppers

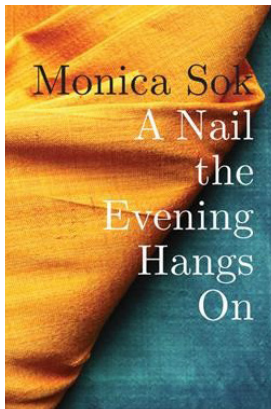

Homie: Poems
by Danez Smith

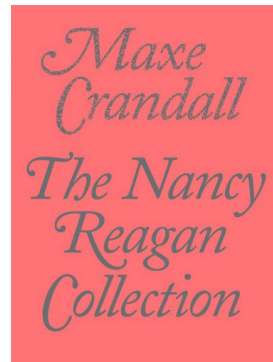

Kontemporary Amerikan Poetry
by John Murillo

My Baby First Birthday: Poems
by Jenny Zhang

A Nail the Evening Hangs On
by Monica Sok

The Nancy Reagan Collection
by Maxe Crandall

Postcolonial Love Poem
by Natalie Diaz